In Loving Memory of My Father

Salvatore "William" Ordille (27 August 1911 – 14 June 2011)

And My Grandfather

Francesco "Frank" Ordille (12 July 1874 -28 December 1919)

"My Father didn't tell me how to live.
He lived and let me watch him do it."
- Author Unknown

"A father gives his children roots to help them stand firm in their beliefs.
He nourishes them, body and soul,
to help them grow in faith
He is a shinning light to help them find their way in life."

NOTE:

For the earliest Ordile family and the direct line families, the Table of Contents is entirely inclusive to the first six generations. For all other families, narratives will be presented but only the first generation will be noted in the Table of Contents.

And those individuals and families that emigrated from Sicily will be denoted by an asterisk, *. Also to keep track of immediate or direct family, both given and surnames are shown in all capitals.

Since this writing includes several families with direct lineage representing ancestral marriages, many of the individual and/or families will be noted in more than one narrative with a page reference for family details.

Preface

By definition genealogy is an account of the descendants of a person, family, or group, that is the study of a family lineage. So is such research ever complete? I guess if one takes the narrow approach and only follows one branch of the family, it can be considered concluded after a series of generations. But I chose to follow the broader scope and considered the entire tree. So there will always be new ancestors to discover along with current generations to add.

This journey started with just the names of my grandparents. I am amazed at the path I've wandered and the family I've discovered especially without any specific road to follow. The family tree isn't complete. As with all research, it should not be interpreted as complete nor infallible and I apologize for any missing information, errors, misspellings, or inaccurate data. There are ancestors I may have overlooked and hints that I missed. I am grateful to have started this journey and discovered the determination, courage, and commitment of my ancestors to bring me to this point in time.

All early information presented in this writing from 1820 to 1910 is from the Sicily Civil Records for birth, marriage, and death including dates and comments from notes recorded on those records. This data may not be the same as that found in church records which may show dates earlier or later that the civil records. Any additional information that was uncovered will be noted in the narrative. The decision to maintain the civil records as the main source of information was two fold. First, I was able to attach each original civil document to the individual in my family tree, and second, it maintains consistency across all families whether immediate or non immediate. Also noted in the narrative will be any assumptions made for an individual or family.

As the story unfolds in the United States, documentation includes passenger ship manifests, US census data through to 1950, US marriage and birth records where available, naturalization petitions, military records for drafts and enlistments, Social Security records for name change and death, US public records, obituary notices from both newspapers and online, funeral memorial cards and online Find-A-Grave memorials. Early generations may include all or any of the above references and recollections from other family members. Recorded dates may also vary from document to document and, if relevant, will be noted. This information is most complete for the first six generations. Know that on-line information is constantly changing, whether it be additions, corrections, or updates. At this point in time only available and confirmed published information will be included along with information generously shared by cousins from their own family research. It's the later generations, where reliance for knowledge lies heavily on US public records, obituary notices from both newspapers and online, and shared information, that have the most gaps and missing information such as marriages, divorces, and/or children..

I would like to specifically acknowledge Joann Capella Aach who shared with me her detailed family history and without Pam Ordille Raymond, I would not have known about the Ordile Charter. Through emails with Cheryl Ordille Pindur on her fact finding trip to Gesso, additional missing information was added. And Antonio Federico provided details for the Ordile families that remained in Sicily.

There are many twists and turns in this family, in fact too many to easily cross reference. So I've added the early generations to the Shared Family Tree on familysearch.org. This includes any information I had for the families of both spouses. In doing so, I was also able to link to additional families already on familysearch.org. For any cross referencing, the shared family tree will be available to search relationships.

Any comments, corrections, and/or additions are welcome. Contact me at FourFamilies@verizon.net.

Introduction

This writing is meant to be a compilation of all previous writing and includes all current updates.

The Ordile and Pagano descendants emigrated as families so there are several generations to portray. This defines families in terms of a family lineage rather that family relationships. It is unknown how the early families are related. Note that I said "how". With such a rare surname and that Gesso was the main village in Sicily where the Ordile surname was found, it is believed that these families represent fathers, mothers, brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, and cousins.

To easily keep track of immediate or direct family, both given and surname will be shown in all capitals. Anyone who emigrated to the United States will be highlighted in gray. If families are connected through marriage, it will be noted in a comment. And direct family relationships are defined in terms of kinship from the point of view of my father, Bill Ordille. To preserve direct kinship, I distinguish between ancestor and descendant cousins “removed” by using a “-” or “+” in the notation. If more than one family relationship applies, the closest one will prevail. Also any uncertainty about family connections will be noted in the narrative along with feasible relationships. And all early birth, marriage, and/or death dates will be from the civil records. This will provide consistency to the narrative but may or may not be the same as from other sources.

These families have become so intertwined that it is difficult to discuss one without the other as evidenced by marriages among cousins. For the earliest Ordile family and those direct lineage individuals and families, the Table of Contents will included the first six generation. For all other families only the first generation will be indexed. In the narratives if families are duplicated, then the detail will only appear once in the first occurrence with a reference to the appropriate page for detailed reference. While the Manera & Crasti Pidarello, Biafore & Tarsitano, and DiPietro & Angemi tomes are all inclusive. That is any individual detail can be found within the same volume with references to families ties. That will not be the case for Ordile & Pagano. If a detailed family narrative appears in anther tome, the family will be noted here with a reference to the detailed link. While this may appear cumbersome, it actually streamlines the writing and highlights family connections.

While there will be duplication between this writing and earlier tomes, there also will be new and updated family details. Hopefully this approach will provide a one source depository for all. What is not presented in these writings, are a historical timeline of events and the results of my DNA research. Searching for My Origins will continue to provide background DNA research along with a historical perspective. Please see this tome for details.

French Proverb : "A vaincre sans péril, on triomphe sans gloire" -

To win without risk is a triumph without glory."

Basque Proverb : "Aurrera begiratzen ez duena, atzean dago" –

Those who don't look forward, stay behind. Latin equivalent: If you are not moving forward, you are losing ground.

Sicilian Proverb : "Bonu vinu fa bonu sangu" – Good wine makes good blood"

Good wine makes good blood which generates good humor, which in turn produces good health and good thoughts, good thoughts brings forth good works and deeds which paves our way into heaven.

Early Eighteenth Century Family Connections

The earliest Ordile reference dates back to the mid 1600's. In any situation, there is a better chance of defining the male lineage since ancestors and descendants can be traced through his surname. For the female spouse, only ancestral tracking of her surname would be possible if the records are available. And the church is the only place where records dating back before 1800 may be kept. Unfortunately not all church record are available for research.

For my Ordile and Pagano side of the family, this would mark the ancestral end of line for Giacobbe, Macri, Berenato, Campanella, and Ordile (Maria). The Gesso civil records revealed the following:

Family: 1650-1750

The earliest reference was found in the FamilySearch.org ancestral files and that was the family of Joseph Celesti (abt 1660) and Angelica Ordile (abt 1664). They were born in Gesso and were married in about 1691. Information was found for only one daughter Philippa Celesti (abt 1692) who married Leonardus Berenato (abt 1688) on 5/28/1713. Descendants can be traced through eleven generations in both Sicily and the United States. While marriages occurred between Angelica's descendants and my immediate Ordile family, no direct connection was found between the two families. That doesn't mean that it doesn't exist. With such a rare surname, it is most likely that a familial relationship exists.

There were five other Ordile families dating from the early 1700's:

1. FRANCESCO ORDILE (bef 1720/1737-) & CATERINA LEO (bef 1737-)
   & Domenica Tomasello (bef 1739-)
2. Giuseppe Ordile (bef 1730-) & Angela Campanella (bef 1730-)
3. Antonino Ordile (bef 1731-) & Giuseppa Bruno (bef 1731-)
4. Matteo Ordile (bef 1737-) & Giuseppa Scaltrito (bef 1737-)
5. Luciano Ordile (abt 1745-) & Angela Campanella (abt 1745-4 May 1831)

Of these, it is assumed that Francesco Ordile represents my ancestral lineage. It is unclear who his spouse was at the time. The Giuseppe Ordile family can be followed through seven generations while the Antonino Ordile family can be traced through five generations. For Matteo Ordile, only two generations were found while the Luciano family is represented by one generation. As expected, the more information you find the more family connections can be discovered. Through marriage, only the family of Giuseppe Ordile can be linked to my immediate family.

Another Perspective

The very early ancestor chart provided by Antonio Federico follows:

1- Giuseppe Gurdili and Francesca Gurdili
  2- Francesco Eurdili and Francesca Scaltrito (married 11/26/1657)
    3- Antonino Urdili and Domenica Scaltrito (married 1/11/1693)
      4- Giuseppe Urdile and Elisabetta Parisi (married 1/11/1739)
    3- Giuseppe Gurdili and Maddalene D'Amico (married 8/29/1700)
      4- Francesco Ordile and Caterina Bonanno (married 8/10/1740)
        5- Giuseppe Ordile and Felicia Campanella (married 2/8/1780)
          6- Francesco Ordile (1784) and Domenica Berenato (1792) (married1864)
          6- Giovanni Battiste Ordile(1798) and Paola Cardullo(1795) (married 12/27/1822)
          6- Nunzio Ordile (1797) and Giuseppa Parisi (married 10/30/1822)
          6- Rosa Ordile (1800) and Francesco Celesti (married 1854)
          6- Giuseppe Ordile (son of Francesco Ordile and Caterina Leo)
          6- Domenico Ordile (pro free state? 1/18/1818)
      4- Letterio Urdile and Antonia Gulli (married 2/2/1738)
        5- Maddalena Urdile and Domenico Tomasello (married 11/26/1761)
      Second marriage -- Letterio Urdile and Caterina Celona
        5- Nunzia Urdile and Francesco D'Agostino (married 1/14/1768)
      4- Rosa Ordile and Francesco Murtara (married 11/20/1727)
      4- Francesca Ordile and Antonio Campanella (married 4/7/1738)

Antonio's research fits in with the very early information uncovered in the civil records. It is interesting to note how the spelling evolved from the 1600's through to the 1800's. Some of the early 1820 civil records did show the spelling as Urdile.

While there are many possibilities of how these two sources could be combined, I've taken a guess at one such scenario based on nothing but age and possible relationships. The combined chart is shown below. The civil record information is in italic and indicated by an arrow. This is pure speculation and is only one possible scenario out of many.

1- Giuseppe Gurdili and Francesca Gurdili

2- Francesco Eurdili and Francesca Scaltrito (married 11/26/1657)

Mid Eighteenth to Early Nineteenth Century Family Connections

There were nineteen families discovered in the time period from 1750 to 1820. The Gesso civil records revealed the following:

Family: 1750-1770

This period uncovered nine Ordile families.

1. Francesco Anastasi (abt 1753-7 Feb 1839) & Teresa Ordile (abt 1753-18 Jul 1834)
2. Nunzio Ordile (bef 1757-bef 1830) & Paola Scaltrito (bef 1757-bef 1830)
3. Joannes Capilli (abt 1754-) & Joanna Ordile (abt 1758-)
4. Silverto Murtera (bef 1752-) & Rosa Ordile (bef 1752-)
5. Placido Ordile (bef 1765-bef 1826) & Antonia Pagano (abt1759-28 Nov 1845)
6. Pietro Ordile (bef 1765-) & Maria Berenato (bef 1765-)
7. Giuseppe Ordile (bef 1765-bef 1825) & Antonia Romeo (bef 1765-bef 1825)
8. VITTORINO BERENATO (abt 1763-27 Apr 1849) & MARIA ORDILE (abt 1765-)
9. Andrea Giacobbe (bef 1788-bef 1832) & Paola Ordile (abt 1768-20 Jan 1847)

Were they related to each other and the previous generation? Probably but only Vittorino Berenato and Maria Ordile represent a direct Ordile family line. And besides their daughter Domenica (1790), who married Francesco Ordile (1782), no additional members were uncovered for this family. Domenica and Francesco had eleven children.

Of the remaining eight families, there were seven families with with descendants in both Sicily and the United States and/or with marriage connections to my immediate family. These are the families of Teresa Ordile, Nunzio Ordile, Joanna Ordile, Placido Ordile, Pietro Ordile, Giuseppe Ordile and Paola Ordile. For Rosa Ordile and Silverto Murtera, only two generations were found.

Ordile wasn't the only family found in this time span.

1. Giuseppe Brancato (bef 1752-) & Teresa Brancato (bef 1752-)
2. FRANCESCO PAGANO (1766-20 Oct 1842) & ANTONIA MACRI (1770-6 Mar 1846)

The family of Francesco Pagano represent my direct family lines. The Giuseppe Brancato family, while not directly connected my immediate family, can be traced through seven generation in both Sicily and the United States with marriage links to my immediate family.

Family: 1770-1790

Among the families in this time span were four Ordile's.

1. Placido Ordile (bef 1775-) & Antonia Cappuccio (abt1775-9 May 1838)
2. Girolemo D'Agostino (abt 1764-2 Feb 1829) & Antonia Ordile (bef 1775-bef 1829)
3. Giovanni Berenato (abt 1755-13 Aug 1837) & Santa Ordile (bef 1778-bef 1826)
4. Luciano Tomasello (abt 1771-3 Feb 1835) & Giuseppa Ordile (abt1785-12 Jul 1836)

Only the families of Antonia Ordile, Santa Ordile, and Giuseppa Ordile are linked to my immediate families through marriage. Also descendants of Santa and Giuseppa immigrated to the United States. For Placido Ordile and Antonia Cappuccio, only one generation was discovered.

There was one other family found in this time period.

1. ANTONINO BRANCATO (1774-24 Mar 1846) & CONCETTA GIACOBBE (abt 1785)

The family of Antonino Brancato is a direct line ancestral family.

Family: 1790-1820

For Ordile, there were three families in this time period.

1. Matteo Ordile (bef 1801-) & Orsala Pullia (bef 1801-bef 1838)
2. Pasquale Celeste (bef 1808) & Giuseppa Ordile (bef 1806)
3. Santo Silipigni (bef 1818) & Domenica Ordile (bef 1818)

Only two descendant generations were found for the families Giuseppa and Domenica with no immediate family connections. While no immediate family connections were found among the descendants of Matteo where there were four generations of descendants.

Family Connections: Villages of Gesso, Calvaruso, and Serro, Sicily?

Ordile is a very rare Italian surname. Today it is found in only nine communities throughout Italy. While the surname was also found in surrounding Sicilian villages, those individuals can all be traced back to the village of Gesso.

Is there a family connection between these three villages? Positively... And perhaps Villafranca Tirrena should be added to the list since Calvaruso and Serro are considered part of the Villafranca Tirrena region. There have been marriages between families from these villages. And even indications that within families some children were born in one village while others were born in another. Thus indicating families moved between villages.

It appears that interpreting birth location from the early records may be just as difficult as defining a birth date. For lack of definitive information, the place of birth may have easily been recorded as the place of last residence.

However -- Some interesting outstanding items have been uncovered:

While all records point to Rosaria Ordile Ingemi being born and residing in Gesso, her travel trunk is labeled Calvaruso. Did her sister Domenica Ordile Bertino live in Calvaruso? Did Rosaria and family live in Calvaruso before emigrating?

Also my DNA results indicate a 3rd to 5th cousin relationship with a childhood friend and her cousin. The link would be through their maternal grandparents family from Calvaruso. Their grandparents were also first cousins. Similar surnames should appear in both our direct family ancestors. A quick side-by-side comparison of their direct maternal grandparent's ancestors and my direct paternal grandfather's ancestors is shown below.

Grandparents	Antonino Rando 1886	&	Mary Rana 1897		Francesco Ordile 1874
Great Grandparents	Pietro Rando 1859	&	Anna Anastasi 1859	Giuseppe Rando 1845	&	Giuseppa Repici 1863	Antonius Ordile 1835	&	Antonia Pagano 1835
2nd Great Grandparents	Andrea Rando 1810	&	Francesca Scavitto 1816	Giacobbo			Francesco Ordile 1782	&	Domenica Berenato 1790
3rd great grandparents	Antonio Rando 1790	&	Antonia Campanella 1790	Giuseppe Ordile abt 1759	&	Felice Campanella abt 1762

Could Antonia Campanella (1790) from Calvaruso and Felice Campanella (abt 1762) from Gesso be related - sisters, aunt/niece? Was Felice Campanella originally from Calvaruso? Appears to be the most likely connection to result in a 5th cousin relationship. However, there still may be some yet to be discovered unknown family connection.

1890 Sicilian Cart

Descendants of FRANCESCO ORDILE (bef 1720/1737) & Caterina Bonanno/CATERINA LEO/Domenica Tomasello

There are many twists and turns in the very early records. The following results are based on the combination of notes found on the original records, families following the tradition of naming their children after their own parents, and information provided by Antonio Federico.

A Francesco Ordile is linked to three marriages. First of all, Antonio also found a marriage between Francesco Ordile and Caterina Bonanno on 8/10/1740. That would imply Francesco and Caterina were born before 1720. I could find no information on Caterina Bonanno, He also indicates that their son Giuseppe Ordile married Felice Campanella on 2/8/1780. I have Giuseppe's birth date about 1759. Also, Antonio has a marriage for Francesco Ordile and Caterina Leo. He indicated that they had a son Giuseppe. No other information is provided. I found a Don Luciano Ordile as a witness on the death record (#11) of Pietro DeDomenico in 1820. Luciano was 63 years old, making his birth date in 1757. His parents were indicated as Francesco Ordile and Caterina Leo and implying they were born before 1737. This indicates there are two children from the marriage of Francesco Ordile and Caterina Leo, that is Luciano and Giuseppe. And Giuseppe is probably the one married to Felice Campanella. At this point I would guess that Luciano was older than Giuseppe.

Lastly, I have a death record in 1826 for Bernardina Ordile. She was 64 years old, implying a birth date of 1762. She was married to Francesco Celesti and her parents were Francesco Ordile and Domenica Tomasello. If Bernardina was born in 1762. this would imply that Francesco and Domenica were born sometime before 1742.

So are there one, two, or three Francesco's and how many marriages? With estimated birth dates before 1720 – 1737 – 1742, there could be one Francesco with several marriages. If so, Francesco was married to Caterina Bonanno in 1740 and Caterina Leo by 1757. Based on my birth date (1759) for Giuseppe, that would make his mother Caterina Leo in this scenario. Then Domenica Tomasello would be Francesco's third wife. Based on all information, let's assumption is that there is one Francesco with at least two marriages, that is to Caterina Leo and Domenica Tomasello. Could Caterina Bonanno and Caterina Leo be the same person with the earlier record indicating a family surname? I found that sometimes the wife is referred to by her mother's surname. To cover all bases and not loose information that may be important later, Caterina Bonanno will be listed as Francesco's first wife. As for children, Luciano and Giuseppe will be shown as children from the marriage of Francesco and Caterina Leo while Bernardina is the child of Francesco and Domenica Tomasello.

FRANCESCO ORDILE was born Bef 1720-1737. Assume three marriages for Francesco.

First: FRANCESCO ORDILE and Caterina Bonanno were married on 10 Aug 1740.

Lastly: FRANCESCO ORDILE and Domenica Tomasello were married. Domenica Tomasello was born before 1739. FRANCESCO ORDILE and Domenica Tomasello had the following child:

Lightning Kills Woman And Man In New Jersey

Hammonton, N. J., Aug. 14 (Special)—Miss Amy Jarrard, 21, and Anthony Ordille, 23, were killed by a bolt of lightning this afternoon while packing peaches in a room of the farmhouse of Salvatore Morino. Mrs. Susan Morino and daughter Kate were burned by the same bolt.

Heavy damage was suffered by peach orchards in this vicinity from the severe electrical storm in which wires were blown down and roads were flooded. The wind at times attained a velocity of fifty-five miles per hour and the rainfall was extremely heavy.

Philadelphia, Aug. 15—(UP) — Eight persons are dead in this area today as the result of severe electrical storms which struck here late yesterday. Four were killed when struck by lightning and four more were drowned as the result of floods and the severity of the storm.

Miss Amy Jarrad, 21, of Alamo City, Ga., and Anthony Ordille, 22, of Hammonton, near here, were killed at Hammonton when struck by lightning while they were packing fruit.

James Thompson, 45, head gardener on the Janney estate at Byrn Mawr, was killed by lightning. John Nash, his assistant was stunned by the same bolt.

Arthur Vervplle was killed when lightning struck a roll of wire he was carrying to a new school building in Oak Lane, a suburb. An unidentified man was drowned at Bristol in a swollen creek.

Maggie Scott, Samuel Campbell, negroes, and another unidentified negro were drowned when the automobile in which they were riding plunged into the Delaware river here. It is thought the driver of the car was blinded by the severity of the storm. A fourth occupant of the car escaped.

Considerable property damage was done by the storm, particularly in the agricultural sections of Southern New Jersey and Eastern Pennsylvania. Hailstones an inch in diameter smashed the roofs of greenhouses near Glassboro, N. J.

COAST GUARD PICKET FIRES ON MOTORBOAT

Banker's Craft Is Halted by Revolver Shots—Occupants Are Arrested.

Atlantic City, July 18—(AP).—Picket Boat 2313 of the Inlet Prohibition Service of the United States Coast Guard, fired 45 revolver shots and finally halted a motor boat in which John X. Ordille, Pleasantville, and Alfred Reed, resort banker, were riding in Great Bay. The boat was boarded and Ordille and Reed handcuffed and shackled and taken to the Coast Guard base, where they were charged with failure to halt on command of a government patrol and with having no license.

Reed and Ordille were released upon being identified, the boat being held as bail to answer the charges.

According to Reed, an Atlantic City bank director, he and Ordille were returning to a houseboat of which he is the owner, in Oyster Creek, after fishing all night in the bay, when they were hailed by the picket boat. Before they were able to halt, he stated, the government boat began firing, one of the shots striking their boat.

According to the Coast Guard, Reed and Ordille were running without lights. Whether or not this gave them the impression that they were dealing with a rum runner, Commander Hemmingway of the Coast Guard base, did not state.

Congressman Isaac Bacharach is taking steps toward having a full investigation made of the matter.

FORMAL APOLOGY FAILS TO MOLIFY

International News Service.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., July 18.—Alfred C. Reed, Boardwalk rolling chair concessionaire and banker here, and John Ordille, secretary and treasurer of the Renault Wine Company, Egg Harbor, N. J., today lodged a formal protest with United States Senator Walter E. Edge, Congressman Albert Bacharach and Commander John Boedecker, in charge of Coast Guard Base No. 1, Atlantic City.

Reed and Ordille protested that early Friday morning, while en route to fishing banks off Atlantic City, they were fired upon by three members of the coast guard in a cutter, taken into custody, handcuffed and shacked, and released after two hours by the coast guard official in charge of the base, who apologized.

Reed stated that the fishing boat they were operating was a 26-foot craft capable of making only 12 miles an hour, while the coast guard cutter had a maximum speed of 22 miles; that they heard no command to halt, and that there was no necessity for their being confined to shackles while being taken to the base.

"The shooting and arrest," Reed said today, "occurred at 4:45 Friday morning, when we were leaving on a fishing trip. It was dawn. We heard no command to halt, but when the first shot crossed our bows stopped the engine immediately. Nine rifle shots, one of them striking our vessel, were fired before the cutter came alongside.

"We were handcuffed and our feet tied two hours while being taken to the base headquarters. Lieutenant Commander Hemmingway, in charge at the time, ordered our release and expressed his regrets.

"The occurrence was an outrage. The coast guard men said we were running without lights, although it was daylight, and that we failed to answer commands to halt. No such commands were heard, perhaps because of the strong adverse winds.

"In any event, our boat could make only 12 miles an hour, while the cutter could do 22, and they could easily have caught up to us without firing. We made no remonstrance and gave our identity. There was absolutely no need for the humiliation of handcuffs and shackles.

The protest was filed in Senator Edge's office pending his return to Atlantic City. Congressman Bacharach said that he would conduct an investigation of his own, and that, if it was warranted, he would take the matter up with Admiral William H. G. Bullard, the head of the U. S. Coast Guard Service.

Commander Boedecker would make no statement, but said that any explanation must come from Washington, D. C.

Santa "Sadie" D'Agostino were married in 1908–1911. They lived at 116 Adams St. in Pleasantville, NJ in 1920. They were renting their home. There also was a 4/26/1934 NY ship passenger record for Santa Ordille leaving Naples for NY aboard the Rex. Although her birth location appears to be Hammiton, NY, the correct location should be Hammonton, NJ. She listed her birth date as 3/5/1893 and was returning to 116 Adams St, Pleasantville, NJ. Traveling with her was Maria D'Agostino (born 3/19/1929 in Pleasantville, NJ) who was also going to the same address in Pleasantville. They lived at 304 W. Adams in Pleasantville, NJ in 1930–1940. They owned their home valued at $6000 in 1930 and $4000 in 1940. The four youngest children were living at home in 1940.

Santa "Sadie" D'Agostino, daughter of Matteo D'Agostino and Maria Grillo, was born on 15 Jun 1891 in Hammonton, NJ. She lived at 203 (upstairs) N Franklin in Pleasantville, NJ in 1950. Included in the household were her children Marie and Matteo. She died in Feb 1980 in Absecon, NJ.

An historical note: Master Vintner Louis Nicholas Renault traveled from the Champagne region of France to the United States in 1855 to save his vines from a sap-eating insect. He first set up his vineyard in California, but his grapes were destroyed. Renault heard about a grape on the East Coast rumored to resist pests and diseases. He purchased land in Egg Harbor City and established his vineyard in New Jersey. By 1870 Renault became the largest champagne distributor in America. Renault Winery rapidly grew in fame, earning Egg Harbor City the nickname “Wine City.” In 1919 John D’Agostino purchased the winery, with a plan to survive Prohibition. D’Agostino received a special permit allowing the production of wine for religious and medicinal purposes. For the 14 years of prohibition Renault Wine Tonic was sold in drug stores nationwide labeled “not to chill the tonic, as it would turn into wine which is illegal". John D'Agostino was Santa's brother.

Liquor Shipments Made After Arrest Of Group

Records Show Three Received Huge Quantity In Dry Section

Arrest of seven defendants in a liquor conspiracy case originating in Guilford County did not stop shipments of several thousands of gallons of liquor to three of the defendants even after their arrests, records in the state Alcohol Beverage Control office at Raleigh indicate.

The case originated with seizure of a truck load of liquor passing through Guilford County late in July and arrests were made during the ensuing few weeks of August.

But reports just received by the state ABC board show liquor shipments into dry sections of the state during September totaled 57,000 gallons from distributing companies in Illinois and Maryland.

Lists Recorded

The records, carbon copies of lists filed by northern distributors with officials in their states, contain the names and addresses of North Carolinians to whom liquor shipments allegedly were made. They show the leading northern distributors in shipping liquor into dry North Carolina areas is Foster Distributing Company of Baltimore, one of whose officials is Sam Gilstein, charged here with conspiracy to violate the state's liquor laws.

The three liquor conspiracy case defendants whom the lists show were shipped liquor in September are W. M. Hanford, formerly of Burlington, W. L. Hanford, of Burlington, his brother, and E. R. White of Randolph County.

If the records are true, W. M. Hanford was shipped liquor after he left this state for Florida, where he was arrested on the conspiracy charge, posted bond and afterward could not be located by officers.

Trial Next Month

All of the other defendants also had been freed under bond for trial here December 4.

The September records show W. M. Hanford was shipped 2,423 gallons of liquor thnt month by Foster; M. L. Hanford was shipped 441 gallons and White 1,602 gallons by the same company.

The complete list of those recorded as having been shipped liquor during August and September follows:

Liquor Probe Leads To 31 Indictments

STATESVILLE, March 21—Indictments for 31 persons in a mass crackdown on an alleged bootlegging syndicate were returned by a U.S. District Court grand jury here Tuesday afternoon.

The indictments reopened the Silver Moon case, in which the star witness for the state mysteriously disappeared before a hearing in Alexander County Superior Court in Taylorsville.

The Silver Moon, a roadhouse located between Taylorsville and Hickory, is the alleged headquarters of the bootlegging ring, reportedly a three-million-dollar-a-year operation.

The indictments came as somewhat of a surprise move in Federal Court, which opened here Monday.

Sandy Ordille

On a recent trip home to South Jersey, Sandy Ordille visited her childhood home. The old tree in the front yard was still there, as well as her name in its bark, which she carved as a girl. She also noticed a surfboard in the yard. "I was glad to see my old home was in good hands," she says. Home is important to Sandy, whose love for surfing has taken her around the world. She started surfing in 1963, but it was a session with her big brother, Pete, in 1967 that Sandy, then twelve, remembers most fondly. Pete let her borrow his new 9'6" Hobie and told her to follow him to the outside. "I remember looking at the big rocks of the jetty and trying not to let my brother know I was scared. A set started forming and Pete shouted, 'Go, go Sandy!' It was a nice two-foot left, and I rode that wave all the way to the beach." Next thing Sandy knew, she was competing in ESA championships and on the Women's pro tour. In that time, she settled in La Jolla, California, where she became a member of the legendary Windansea Surf Club. After a fourteen-year stint in Kauai, Sandy returned to San Diego, where she remains today. Yet time hasn't faded her love for home—every once in a while, especially in the fall, she can't help but check the Ocean City wave report.

BERRY SHIPMENTS TO BEGIN TODAY

Transport Planes To Carry Local Crop To Northern Markets

In the first of a series of air shipments of strawberries grown in this area two C-47 transport planes, loaded with the berries, are scheduled to take off from Bluethenthal airport today, headed for northern metropolitan areas.

John J. Ordille, Hammonton, N. J., a representative of Strawberry Shippers, Inc., arrived in Wilmington yesterday to make arrangements for the shipments with Harry Boyd, Jr., acting manager of the airport.

The C-47's, a with a representative of Wing Cargo, Inc., the air firm handling the shipments aboard, are slated to arrive at Bluethenthal this morning. The strawberries to be shipped today will arrive at the airport in trucks and will be loaded aboard the planes on the large loading apron on the north part of the field, Boyd said. The planes are scheduled to take off about noon, he added.

Headquarters for Wing Cargo, Inc., are located on Northwest airfield in Philadelphia, Pa. The berries will be flown there and then distributed to northern markets, it was indicated.

It is not known exactly how many air shipments of the strawberries grown in this area will be sent to the northern area, but Ordille is making arrangements for several more planes to come down, after those of today, and indications were that there would be many shipments.

The same air firm, Wing Cargo, Inc., sent a plane load of special flowers to Wilmington just before Easter for use by local florists, Boyd said.

ONE DEAD, ONE DYING IN LOVE TRIANGLE

Man Found Slain, Woman's Throat Slashed, Husband of Latter Suspected.

By the Associated Press.

HAMONTON, N. J., August 20.—Andrea Ordille, fifty years old, was found dead at his home today with two bullets in his body and his wife was found in another room with her throat so badly cut with a hatchet that she may die, as the result of a love triangle, the state police believed.

The police declared Ordille was the man who last night dynamited the bakeshop and home of Peter Thomasino and that Ordille then tried to kill his wife and committed suicide in anger. The police claim to have knowledge of an affair between Mrs. Ordille and Thomasino.

The dynamiting of Thomasino's home about midnight injured two persons who were passing the house. Three of Thomasino's children were cut by flying glass.

Truck in Crash Blazes; Ties Up Traffic

Busy Route 29 Jammed an Hour

PLAINFIELD (AP)—Traffic was tied up for an hour on bustling Route 29 yesterday as firemen battled flames from a huge trailer-truck which caught fire after a collision with an automobile.

Four persons were injured in the mishap in nearby Green Brook Township.

Cans of asparagus, part of a shipment of supplies being carried by the truck to an army quartermaster depot in south Somerville, exploded from the heat and littered the highway with debris.

According to police, an eastbound car jumped the safety island and smashed into the truck driven by Anthony C. Ordille, 28, of 118 Landis Av., Vineland.

A passerby pulled Ordille from the cab of the truck just before the fire broke out. Ordille was taken to Muhlenberg Hospital, suffering an injured right ankle.

Three persons in the automobile also were taken to the hospital for treatment. They were the driver, Mrs. Gladys Muchowski, 27, of 88 Manning Av., North Plainfield, who received head cuts; her daughter, Yvonne, 7, who suffered bruises, and Lynn Kelly, 8, of 104 Jackson Av., North Plainfield, who suffered fractured ribs and left shoulder.

TRIANGLE IS FATAL.

Man Attacks Wife, Bombs Bakery And Kills Himself.

Hammondton, N. J.—Police believed a love triangle was responsible for the death of Andres Ordille, 50, a night watchman, a murderous attack on his wife, Francesca, and the bombing of a bakery owned by Peter Thomasino in which Thomasino's three children were injured slightly.

The police believe Ordille, jealous because of attentions by the baker to his wife, attacked the woman after planting a bomb in Thomasino's baker shop and committed suicide.

Mrs. Ordille, 40, was in a precarious condition in a hospital with her throat cut and skull fractured.

1 DEAD, 6 INJURED IN LOVE TRAGEDY

Man Dynamites Home, Shoots Wife and Then Kills Himself

(Associated Press)

HAMMONTON, N. J., Aug. 20.—Andrew Ordille, 50, was found dead in his home with two bullet wounds in his body today and his wife was found in another room with her head and throat so badly hacked with a hatchet she is not expected to live.

State police declare Ordille was the man who last night dynamited the bake shop and home of Peter Thomasino, 45. They also say that Ordille then tried to kill his wife and commit suicide in anger over an alleged "love triangle." The police claim to have knowledge of an affair between Mrs. Ordille and Thomasino.

The dynamiting of Thomasino's home about midnight injured and bruised two persons who were passing the house and slightly cut three of Thomasino's children with flying glass.

The explosion shattered windows and shook buildings within the radius of half a mile.

The State police said today that Ordille apparently shot himself about an hour after Thomasino's home had been bombed. He was on $5,000 bail for a trial on a charge of shooting a neighbor with a shotgun, who later recovered. This shooting took place two months ago and was said to be due to jealousy.

Mrs. Ordille was taken to an Atlantic City hospital this morning. Six children in the Ordille family today are without a father.

Ordile, who is 88 years old, had the reputation of being a perfect type of Roman.

When he came to this country forty years ago his reputation had preceded him, and artists eagerly sought him to pose for them. Ordile was paid liberally and he was said to possess considerable wealth.

His arrest yesterday in front of the Bourse Building upon the charge of soliciting alms therefore came as a surprise to those who knew him. As he advanced in years Ordile's reputation spread. Paintings of old Romans for which he posed have appeared in the leading magazines in this country. He also posed for several of the leading art schools of this city and his likeness can be seen in all of the leading art establishments.

According to people who knew him he has recently become eccentric from old age, but he had no reason at all to beg, as he lived comfortably with his wife on Carpenter street.

Very truly yours,

Because families seem to settle in the same area, information on Annie and her daughter Lillian is added here. Assume that Annie is Antonio's first wife even though she is listed as a widow in the 1910 census. Then, based on birth dates, it is also very possible that Mary and Frank are her children and not from Antonio's second marriage. There is still a possibility that there were two Antonios. However, assume they had the following children:

Evidence of Ordile in Italy?

While it is true that there are currently more Ordile/Ordille's in the United States than Sicily. There is evidence that at one time there were Ordile's in Italy.

There is an Ordile Charter along with a Coat of Arms which can be found in the Castello Estense in Ferrara, Italy which was home to the House of Este. The House of Este is a European dynasty. The earlier branch included the Dukes of Brunswick-Luneburg and produced Britain's Hanoverian monarchs as well as Ivan VI, Emperor of Russia. The younger branch included rulers of Ferrara (1240-1597) and of Modena and Reggio (1288-1796).

From the time of Ercole I d'Este on, there are many records of construction of apartments, and of their enlargement and enhancement. The definitive transformation works were ordered by Ercole II after a fire in 1544, which had damaged the previous accommodation. The architect Girolamo da Carpi gave the castle the external appearance which can be still seen today, although the interior has been remodeled several times across the ages. After the departure of the Este to Modena, the castle became the residence of the Papal Legate who administered the Ferrarese territory as civil governor for a maximum term of four years. There were few changes made to the structure of the building with the most obvious being the increase in height of the north room which currently houses the cafeteria.

In 1860 Ferrara was annexed to the Kingdom of Italy. The castle has been state-owned since 1874 when it was bought by the Province of Ferrara and utilized as headquarters of the Prefecture. In the subsequent decades, the castle underwent many restoration projects.

The ORDILE CHARTER, shown below, can be translated as follows:

"The family has origins from Canale (Canale is about 25 miles southeast of Turin) near Turin since 1262. Battista Elia was a modeler of custom medals in Genoa in 1480. In the year 1600 we find influential members of this family as generals in the Piedmontese army and magistrates in the chamber of Turin.

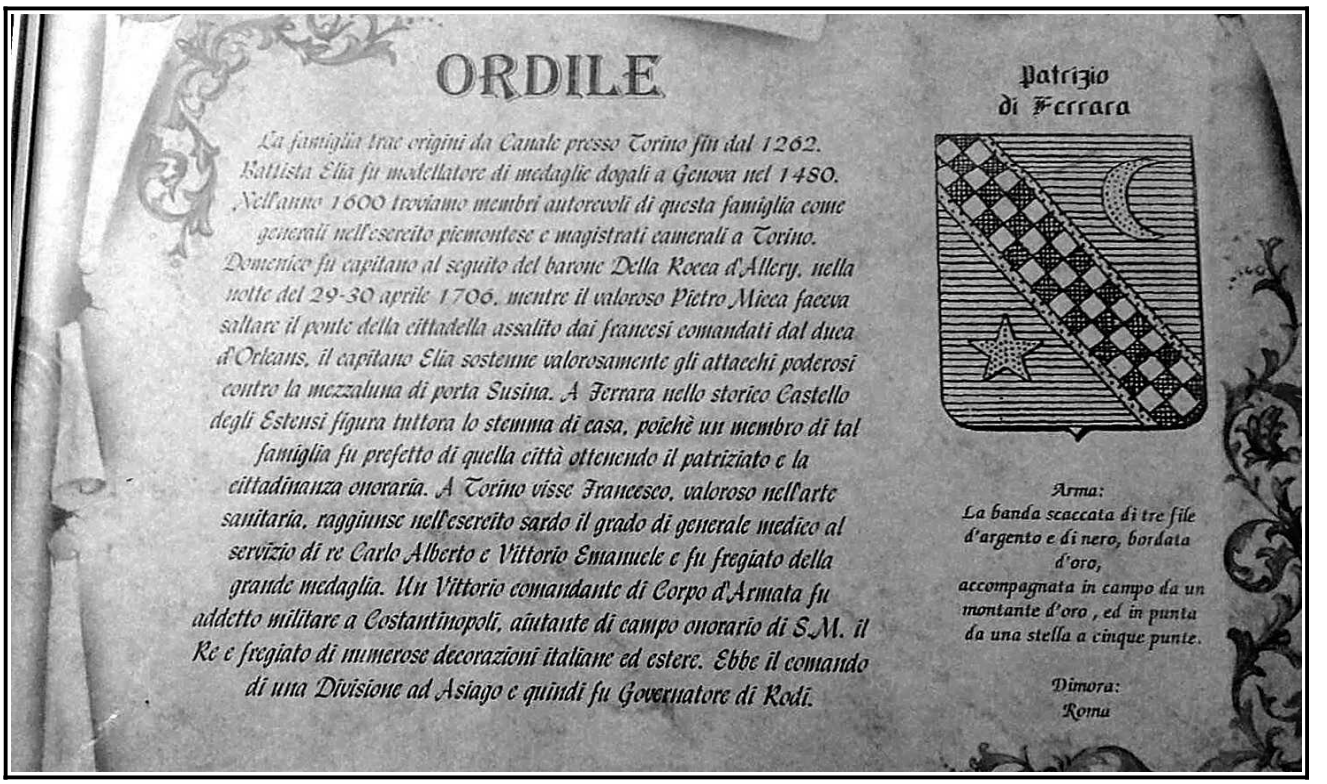
Domenico was Captain in the troops of Baron Della Rocca d'Alley. On the night of 29-30 April 1700, while the valiant Pietro Micca blew up the bridge of the citadel attacked by the French commanded by the Duke of Orleans, Captain Elia defended with valor the powerful attacks against the crescent of Porta Susina.

In Ferrara, in the historic Castle of Este, there is still the Coat of Arms of the (Ordile?) House, as a member of this family was prefect of that city, receiving a Patriciate and Honorary Citizenship.

In Turin, Francesco, who was notable in health care, reached in the Sardinian Army rank of Medical General in the service of King Charles Albert (House of Savoy, Sardinia King ruling from 1831-1849) and Victor Emanuel (King Charles Albert's son) and was decorated with that great medal.

Vittorio was commander of the Army Corps, military attache in Constantinople, and Honorary Aide de Camp to his Majesty the King. Vittorio Elia was awarded numerous decorations both Italian and foreign and was bestowed the command of a division in Asiago and then was Governor of Rhodes (5/27/1917-12/15/1919)."

It is unknown why the charter depicts the Ordile surname but the individuals shown use the surname Elia. Specifically, Vittorio Elia is listed as the governor of Rhodes, Greece which was governed by Italy from 1913 to 1943. The Charter does document a Sardinian connection through King Charles Albert of the House of Savoy and the Piedmont region of Italy which was under Sardinian rule with Turin as the capital. No details have been uncovered relating to the Ordile Charter and the House of Este in Ferrara, Italy.



ORDILE
La famiglia trae origini da Canale presso Torino fin dal 1262.
Battista Elia fu modellatore di medaglie dogali a Genova nel 1480.
Nell'anno 1600 troviamo membri autorevoli di questa famiglia come generali nell'esercito piemontese e magistrati camerali a Torino.
Domenico fu capitano al seguito del barone Della Rocca d'Allery, nella notte del 29-30 aprile 1706, mentre il valoroso Pietro Micca faceva saltare il ponte della cittadella assalito dai francesi comandati dal duca d'Orleans, il capitano Elia sostenne valorosamente gli attacchi poderosi contro la mezzaluna di porta Susina. A Ferrara nello storico Castello degli Estensi figura tuttora lo stemma di casa, poichè un membro di tal famiglia fu prefetto di quella città ottenendo il patriziato e la cittadinanza onoraria. A Torino visse Francesco, valoroso nell'arte sanitaria, raggiunse nell'esercito sardo il grado di generale medico al servizio di re Carlo Alberto e Vittorio Emanuele e fu fregiato della grande medaglia. Un Vittorio comandante di Corpo d'Armata fu addetto militare a Costantinopoli, aiutante di campo onorario di S.M. il Re e fregiato di numerose decorazioni italiane ed estere. Ebbe il comando di una Divisione ad Asiago e quindi fu Governatore di Rodi.

The Patrician of Ferrara Crest consists of a split bend of three rows of silver and black bordered with gold. It is accompanied in the field by a golden upright and a five pointed star. It resides in Rome.

The bend often signifies high military rank and the cheque pattern represents constancy. The crescent signifies one who is enlightened and honored by his sovereign. It is also used to mark the relationship to the grantee. The crescent marks the second son while the star marks the third son. The silver color signifies peace and sincerity, the black represents constancy or grief, and gold shows generosity and elevation of the mind.

Epilogue

"A father is neither an anchor to hold us back nor a sail to take us there but a guiding light whose love shows us the way."

"Only the best dads let their children fly.
Only the most loved children will soar.
Thank you for giving me wings."

A Family Is Like A Circle

-- Nicole M. O'Neil

A family is like a circle. The connection never ends, and even if at times it breaks, in time it always mends.

A family is like the stars. Somehow they're always there.
Families are those who help, who support and always care.

A family is like a book. The ending's never clear, but through the pages of the book, their love is always near.

A family is many things. With endless words that show who they are and what they do and how they teach you so you know.

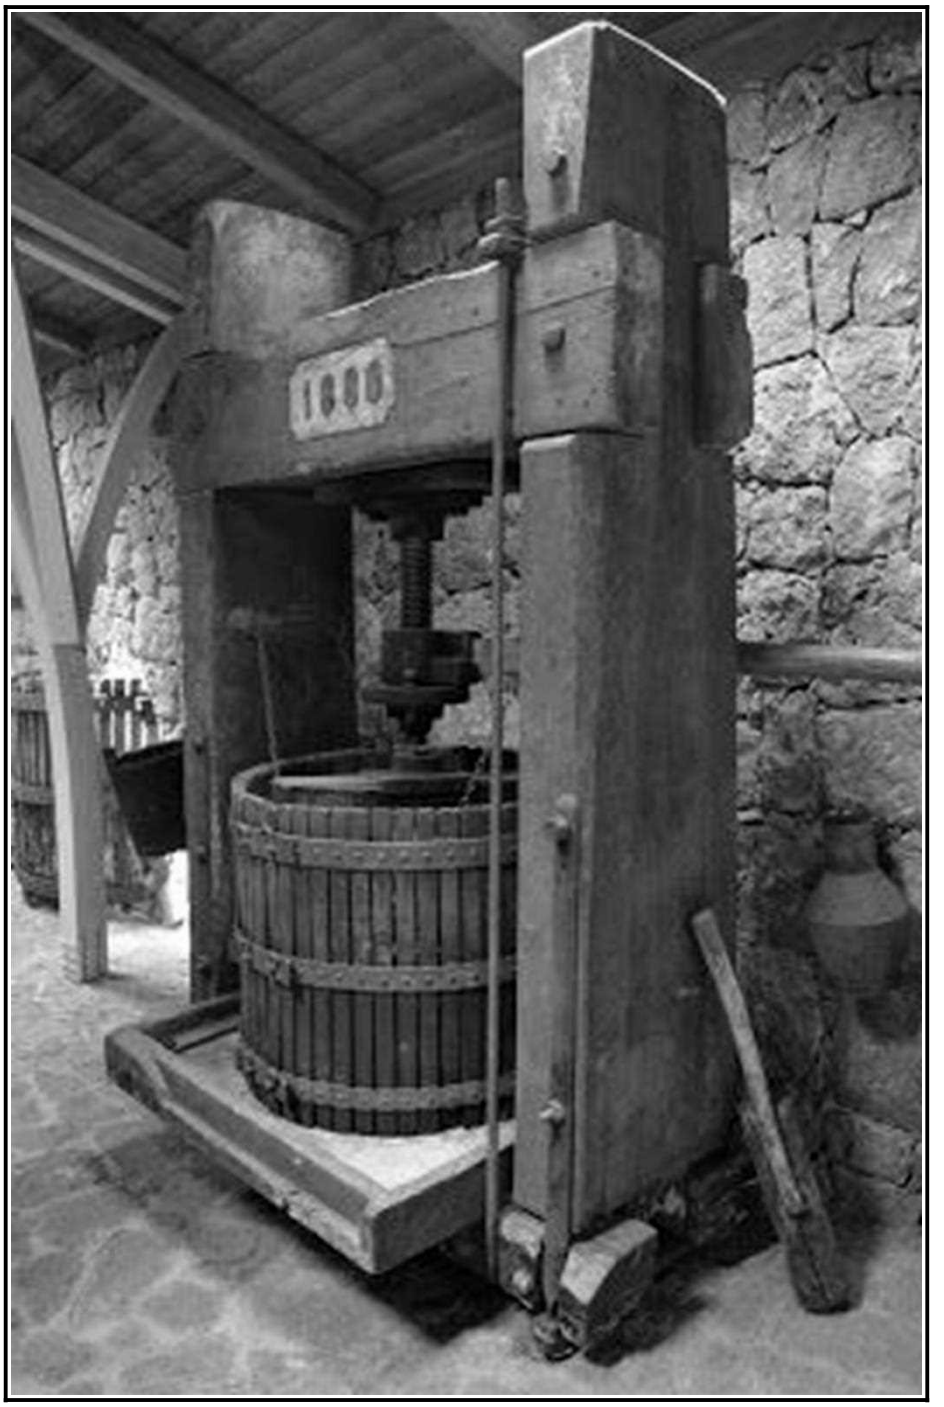
But don't be weary if it's broken or if through time it's been so worn.
Families are like that - they're split up and always torn.

But even if this happens, your family will always be.
They help define just who you are and will be a part of you eternally.

"Nothing makes me feel stronger than knowing that I have a dad who's got my back."



Sicilian Vintage Wine Press

"Anyone can be a father,
But it takes someone special to be a dad,
And that's why I call you dad
because you are so special to me."
